

ARTEA

Australasian Reciprocal Trade Exchanges
Association

ARTA

Australasian Reciprocal Traders Association

Code of Universal Trading Practice

Standards Behavior Customer
Protection Global Legal Tender
Goods Services Exchange

CONTENTS

PART A.	INTRODUCTION
1	1.1 Introduction
PART B.	OUR OBLIGATIONS
2	2.1 Our commitments to customers
3	3.1 Compliance with laws
4	4.1 Customers Rights
5	5.1 Trained Staff and Competency
PART C.	DISCLOSURES
6	6.1 Terms and conditions
7	7.1 Operation of Accounts
8	8.1 Account suitability
9	9.1 Copies of documents
PART D.	PRINCIPLES OF CONDUCT
10	10.1 Opening of accounts
PART E.	RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES, MONITORING, REPORTING AND SANCTIONS.
11	11.1 Resolution of Disputes
12	12.1 Monitoring and AML/CTF Act 2006 Reporting
13	13.1 Sanctions
PART F.	DEFINITIONS
12	12.1 Definitions

First published by the Australasian Reciprocal Trade Exchanges Association in conjunction with the Australasian Reciprocal Traders Association on K307.03.10 [2019gce] see www.aussiertea.com under Legals and Policies.

PART A. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This code of conduct sets standards of good trading practice for all persons to follow when selling or purchasing goods and services where a universally accepted global numerical value is required to be recorded as legal tender in exchange for goods and or services of individuals, and small or large businesses where global online or physical face to face shop front customer base is the objective of an individual, business or enterprise.

PART B. OUR OBLIGATIONS (under construction)

2.0 Obligations to members

- 2.1 The Exchange will:
- (a)

PART F. DEFINITIONS (under construction)

12.0 Definitions

12.1 In this code are listed meanings applicable to the universal global reciprocal trading practice: